THANK YOU...

for requesting information about the Xlibris Full Color Book Publishing services. By reading this brochure, you are taking the first step toward realizing your publishing goals.

Publishing your picture book through Xlibris means you are choosing an affordable and convenient route to first-rate digital color publication. Once your book is published, it becomes available to readers and booksellers worldwide in a beautiful color edition, and you receive royalties on each copy purchased by your audience.

Xlibris offers a wide range of full color packages to make your decision to publish simple and straightforward. We also provide a range of additional services to give you even more flexibility. To make the process even easier, our knowledgeable publishing consultants are available for a free consultation to help you choose the package that is right for you.
WHO IS XLIBRIS?

Xlibris is one of the pioneers of the supported self-publishing services industry and still leads the way today. We are proud to have helped more than 40,000 authors publish more than 60,000 titles over the past 17 years, and that number is growing every day. With its expertise in providing supported self-publishing solutions, Xlibris strives to continue its vision of excellence well into the future.

IMPRESS AND ENGAGE YOUR READERS

You have a story to tell, and people are waiting to hear it. What you need is the perfect package to engage your audience. Look no further than Xlibris’s Full Color print-on-demand publishing services. The possibilities are endless. Imagine a child’s joy upon opening the first page of your story and encountering words enhanced by vibrant color images. Create an impact with full color design and sharp digital images for your company presentation or brochure, your art portfolio, or your photo album. Xlibris’s Full Color Publishing services can cater to all your publishing needs while enabling you to earn royalties, augment your professional reputation, and captivate your audience.
Xlibris’s full color books contain ample space for full-page spreads of full-bleed images like this one of Plaza de España in Seville, Spain. Although images often speak for themselves, you can superimpose text to provide descriptive commentary. All Xlibris Full Color Publishing packages can treat images and text in this fashion.
HOW XLIBRIS WORKS

TAKE THE FIRST STEP TO GETTING YOUR COMPLETE SUPPORTED SELF-PUBLISHING SERVICES

The process begins with your manuscript submission, which consists of:
• Your ordering information
• Your interior and cover text in a word-processing format
• Your images in digital format or hard copies

From there, we create the full design of your book. Once completed, we send you full color e-proofs for your feedback. Upon your approval, we will forward your print-ready files to the printer, ready for any incoming orders.

YOUR BOOK, YOUR RIGHTS—FOREVER

When you publish with Xlibris, your writing legacy lives forever. Because we have the technology to store your book digitally and to print as many copies as needed, your book is always available and will never go out of print—for as long as you choose.

With Xlibris, you are the publisher. You own your images and your text. You keep the rights to your work. This means that you get to decide when to publish, republish, or unpublish, or opt to work with other publishers or agents.

ENJOY GREAT CUSTOMER SERVICE

Publishing a book can be daunting. This is where Xlibris comes in. We provide you with supported self-publishing solutions, coupled with a knowledgeable staff to guide you every step of the way. We realize that your success is our success and view the publication process as a collaborative effort. Our teamwork ensures that you will get the services tailored to your self-publishing needs.
The in-house printing facility of Xlibris ensures that your final product is of the best quality. Our continued dedication to book quality sets the standard in the supported self-publishing industry. Our full color books are printed in varying sizes and formats to creatively package your story and its accompanying artwork.

OTHER FEATURES INCLUDE:

These beautiful leather books come in the Consul, the Diplomat, and the Ambassador formats. Please call your publishing consultant at 1-888-795-4274 for details.
You provide the story and the illustrations, and we’ll put them into a dazzling full color book. We can make your vision become a reality and put your work into a beautiful, lasting form that children will love to hold. Our distribution services make it possible to share your book with the children closest to your heart but with children everywhere—while earning royalties at the same time.
Xlibris can help you publish almost anything in full color. From children’s books to cookbooks, family photo albums to corporate materials, graphic novels to catalogs—the possibilities are limitless. In fact, we have so many that we had to leave some examples out of this brochure. But you are not limited to what we suggest. You can play around with the endless possibilities. If you have an idea in mind, tell us and we will help create the book you have envisioned.

RECIPE BOOKS

Colors are a visual delight that complement your message. Leafing through the pages of your recipe book becomes a gastronomic temptation when hues and tones are vivid enough to whet your readers’ appetites. Make your readers’ mouths water for tender, juicy ground beef sandwiched between al dente lasagna noodles topped with melted cheese, as shown in the picture. Great ideas for talented chefs who would love to share their recipes with family and friends or sell their books commercially. You can create your cookbook to sell or as a way to preserve your family recipes for future generations to take pleasure in.
PHOTO ALBUMS

Weddings, birthdays, graduations, vacations, and children reaching certain milestones are all wonderful reasons to snap a picture and capture the moment. But photos are temporary, easily lost and difficult to copy and share with others. With Xlibris’s help, you can transform a loose collection of your most important moments into a beautifully prepared book that will last a lifetime. Order and share as many copies as you need, or have your friends and relatives order them directly from us. Share your memories in full color.

ART PORTFOLIOS

Artistic excellence requires attractive presentation. You can present your work in its best and most impressive light by packaging it into a professionally designed full color printed book. Include not just the work itself but commentary to enhance and explain. If you are a designer, artist, photographer, collector, or exhibition coordinator, there is no better way to ensure that your work is seen, appreciated, and preserved.
AUTHOR SUGGESTIONS

We want to hear your ideas. Let our team of graphic design professionals know what you envision, and we will do our best to incorporate your suggestions to produce a quality book with which you are completely satisfied.

OVERALL TONE

The overall tone of your book stems directly from the kind of book you would like to publish. Let us know what you would like your book to feel like. Is it happy, or is it sad? Serious or silly? Technical or just for fun? Keep in mind that simple descriptions work best in helping us make appropriate design choices.

Here are some examples of overall tones:
- Creepy
- Informal
- Sad
- Excited
- Informative
- Serious
- Formal
- Lighthearted
- Silly
- Happy
- Nostalgic
- Technical

FONT THEME

The font theme relates to your overall tone, but it is the specific way the text in your book will be treated. Included on this page are examples of font themes. While we may not use the exact fonts on this page, we will select something from the family of fonts that fall into thematic categories and choose the one that’s right for your book. Use one of these examples, or tell us your general font theme.

Here are some examples of font themes:

- Kids
- Classic
- Contemporary
- Digital
- Elegant
- Futuristic
- Historic
- Humorous
- Informal
- SCARY

COLOR THEME

The color theme also correlates to your overall tone by adopting colors to suit your theme. Our designers will select from a library of color palettes to use for background and text colors. Often the colors contained within your images will produce a suitable palette, but you are free to suggest a color theme that you think would work well.

Here are some examples of color themes:

- SEASONAL—summer, fall, winter, and spring
- PASTELS—cool, warm, feminine, and masculine
- PRIMARY—red, blue, yellow
- SECONDARY—purple, orange, green
- CONTEMPORARY—bright or subdued
- TECHNO—warm or cool grays with neon highlights
- CONTRASTING—dark-darks and light-lights
- COMPLEMENTARY—red and green, blue and orange, etc.

TITLE PITCH PUBLISHING

Even in this digital age of publishing, brick-and-mortar bookstores continue to hold sway. But publishing your book and having to approach bookstores or libraries all by yourself—without any assurance of your book getting stocked—can be a very daunting task. That’s why the Xlibris Title Pitch packages were created: to cater to authors keen on tapping this potential market.
All books are a visual experience, especially large format, full color picture books. Xlibris’ wide array of special services let you manipulate your visuals. Picture your text and images as shapes positioned in relation to each other. Imagine graphics and text, paintings and poems, photography and recipes—the combinations and variations are infinite. Are they side by side? Is one on top of the other? Do they appear in boxes, in triangles, or in a unique shape? In other words, think about how you want your book to look. Xlibris has a service to make your vision and your book a vivid reality.
MY FRIEND ARTHUR

In the school I went to four years old
Three, wearing a shirt and red trousers
Some days I was good and other days I was bad
I was seen as a nemesis. He was the best
I used to know how to keep up with everyone.
And when I saw my name, I was so happy.
When up in front of Arthur, he was hard
Who spoke with me and caused me joy.
The tears were not too late in the school
With the love of Arthur, who was so kind
I never had him be my friend
But that would be right to him to the end.

MY SHADOW

My shadow is a tree sun when its gone
Hidden from the sun, where it is shining
One to return before too long
While passing back from the light songs
Disappeared by the world or songs
But it disappears as I have songs
Though I can not see you I am not wrong.
Duty, I am aware to a sense of wrongs.
I want everyone around me to succeed
Like this own shadow with all its success.

The Past and Present

Activists alongside and around the Singapore River are now oversees relating that since a major clean-up project that took place two years ago and was completed in 1987. The picture of this desolate and darkened area was taken against the backdrop of the Fullerton Hotel, the former General Post Office until it was rehabilitated and transformed into a luxurious 5-star hotel in 2009.
COPYEDITING SERVICE

Even the best writers make mistakes, and you can get help from professional copyeditors who will review your manuscript for the following:

- Grammar
- Punctuation
- Word usage
- Spelling

INDEXING SERVICE

There are two methods for including an index in your book:

- AUTHOR-SUPPLIED INDEX
  Either submit your manuscript with a programmed index or create the index, including final page numbers, after the corrections stage.

- XLIBRIS-SUPPLIED INDEX SERVICE
  Our indexers will read through your manuscript and tag appropriate words so that a dynamic index is created.

The cost of these services varies depending on the length of your manuscript.
ADD-ON SERVICES

Xlibris offers a variety of additional services to round out and complement your publishing experience. Some of these options are included in the publishing packages, so be sure to review the details of your service level carefully.

AUTHOR ALTERATIONS & CORRECTIONS SERVICE

Even a professional copy editor may overlook some grammatical errors in your manuscript. This unavoidable slip can put your author credibility on the line. Our Author Alterations & Corrections Service ensures that you can double check your manuscript and correct any overlooked mistakes before you approve the final galley proof.

DATA ENTRY SERVICE

This is a reliable, fast, and inexpensive method of converting your handwritten or typewritten paper manuscript into a word-processing file. Our process provides a high degree of accuracy for an incomparable price. Cost is based on a standard font size (12 pt.), double-spaced manuscript. Please do not send original materials.

HARDBACK AVAILABILITY

You can make your book available in a hardcover version as well. We will produce a sturdy case-bound volume with high gloss lamination, assign an individual ISBN number to it, and make it available for sale through Xlibris.

US COPYRIGHT OFFICE REGISTRATION

To ensure complete protection of your book under the US copyright law, Xlibris will register your book with the US Copyright Office. Once registered, your book’s copyright is fully protected for your lifetime plus seventy years. We will submit the required copies of your book and all the necessary paperwork. Notice of copyright is sent to you when we receive it, approximately six months to one year after completion of the publication process.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS NUMBER

The Library of Congress number is used by the US Central Library to track submissions for the library’s permanent collection. We will submit a copy of your book to the Library of Congress and arrange for a card catalog number to be assigned to your book.

*Note: The Library of Congress does not supply a number if the book is below 50 pages unless it is a children’s book. They also reserve the right to refuse cataloging.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

To facilitate the smooth flow of the publishing process, make sure that you have prepared your manuscript and other materials according to the following guidelines.

PREPARE YOUR BOOK FOR SUBMISSION

Submit your manuscript as a single digital file in one of the common word processor file types like Microsoft Word (.doc) or Rich Text Format (.rtf). Contact a Publishing Consultant if your manuscript is saved in another format. If you have a typewritten or handwritten manuscript, please take advantage of our Data Entry Service (see page 34).

PREPARE YOUR IMAGES

You may either submit your images to Xlibris as digital (see page 43 for details) or hard copy (original images) files.

WRITE YOUR BOOK AND AUTHOR SUMMARIES

Supply a digital file with the text for your book and author summaries. Note that the combination of this text should be less than 300 words for the back cover and up to 4,000 words for the Xlibris bookstore.

SEND YOUR MATERIALS TO XLIBRIS

To expedite the process, we recommend submitting your materials via e-mail to submission@xlibris.com.

If you prefer postal mail, please save everything in a PC-formatted disk, CD, or DVD. A traceable mail service like FedEx is recommended to ensure safe arrival.

* Please retain backup copies of the materials you send. Xlibris will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to materials sent to us.
You may submit hard copy/original images or digital images. Xlibris supports supplied hard copy images up to 12” x 17”, including original images on paper (original art such as watercolors, line art using ink, etc.) and photographs. If you are submitting digital images, please read the following formatting requirements:

• Images are saved as either TIFF or JPEG files in CMYK color mode.

• To ensure quality reproduction, all graphics and/or images should have a resolution of at least 300 dpi and be in actual size.

• Save all image files as separate files. Please do not embed or paste images in your manuscript.

• Indicate where you want the images to appear in your manuscript by inserting notes enclosed in angle brackets (e.g. <insert image1 here>). Please make sure you use the right filename for easy reference.

• Aside from the interior images, you have the option to submit the following:
  - Cover Image: to be placed on the front cover of the book
  - Cover Design: photo or illustration file for your book cover
  - Author Image: to be placed on the back cover of the book

GRAPHICS FORMATTING
The entire publishing process of Xlibris takes an average of three to four months upon our receipt of your complete submission. This turnaround time changes depending on how long it takes you to review e-proofs and the number of corrections you make.

SUBMISSION

Xlibris will review your order and contact you within two to three business days from the day you sign up. Once we receive your complete materials, please allow us two to three business days to review and ensure that they are ready for production.

INITIAL PRODUCTION

You can expect the book interior and cover design within ten business days from the time your book enters production.

AUTHOR REVIEW OF E-PROOFS

You will receive e-proofs of your book’s cover and interior for your review before we proceed with publication. The faster you return the e-proofs, the faster your book will be completed.

CORRECTIONS

You may make corrections to the e-proofs. You will receive a second set of e-proofs to confirm these corrections. Allow roughly three to five business days per set of corrections.

DISTRIBUTION

With each picture book service, we make your book available for sale through Xlibris and worldwide via the Ingram distribution network, which includes Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and many other online retailers. In addition, we assign an ISBN (International Standard Book Number) and register your book with Books in Print, enabling any retailer around the country to order it directly from Xlibris.

We can take book orders via our:
- 24/7 toll-free book orders hotline
- e-mail
- Xlibris Online Bookstore, and
- postal mail
RETAILS PRICES

The retail price is the price that an end-consumer pays when he/she buys your book. A book’s retail price is calculated to cover all the costs needed to manufacture the book, make it available for sale in the distribution channel, take orders, and deliver it to your customers.

SET YOUR OWN PRICE

This service enables you to control the retail price of your book and the amount of royalties you earn on each copy sold. With the Set Your Own Price service, you can customize the price for the hardcover and paperback versions of your book separately and have the option to change the retail price once every quarter. Call your publishing consultant at 1-888-795-4274 for details or visit www.xlibris.com/calculator.

BOOKSTORE RETURNABILITY

The inability to accept book returns has been a major stumbling block in the self-publishing arena from the beginning. The Xlibris Bookstore Returnability Program has leveled the playing field by making books returnable through Ingram. When you choose to enroll in this program, you make your work more attractive to booksellers everywhere and increase the market availability of your book. Call your publishing consultant at 1-888-795-4274 for details.

DISCOUNTS

With author discounts ranging from 30 percent to 60 percent, industry-standard reseller discounts and discounts available on direct orders, we make it as easy as possible for you, your customers, and book retailers to purchase copies of your book.

ROYALTIES

Xlibris pays royalties on a quarterly basis. Royalty information and book sales can be reviewed on the website under the My Author Center section. These are updated 60 days after the end of each quarter to ensure that only the most accurate data is reported. Note that your royalty statement is not included with your quarterly check.
